

CULTURAL COMMUNITY CONNECTIONS

Independent Outings for Spring 2023

As part of our Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Anti-Bias Cultural Community Connections effort, we would like to encourage CCS community members to visit the following events:

Reynier Leyva Novo, Methuselah

at El Museo del Barrio through March 26, 2023

Reynier Leyva Novo: Methuselah, a digital artwork by the Cuban-born and Houston based artist Reynier Leyva Novo that virtually reproduces the transnational migratory journey of a single monarch butterfly.

For more information: www.elmuseo.org/methuselah

no existe un mundo poshuracán: Puerto Rican Art in the Wake of Hurricane Maria at Whitney Museum of American Art through April 23, 2023

This exhibition is organized to coincide with the fifth anniversary of Hurricane Maria—a high-end Category 4 storm that hit Puerto Rico on September 20, 2017.

For more information: www.whitney.org/exhibitions/no-existe

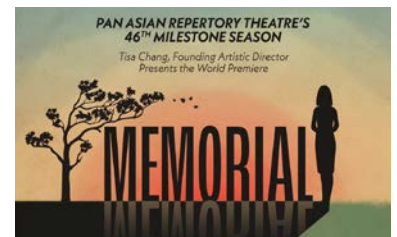

The Play MEMORIAL

at Pan Asian Repertory Theatre through Feb 19, 2023

Why see this show? This history-based play tells the compelling true story of 21-year-old architect and environmentalist Maya Lin and the controversy she faced after winning a national design competition for DC's Vietnam Veterans Memorial.

For more information: www.panasianrep.org

XO WORLD Project Overview

at XO World, 285 Fulton Street New York, NY 10007

Artist Daniel Anderson created the XO WORLD Project to promote equality, unity, peace, and love through large-scale interactive sculptures. The two monumental sculptures – 'XO World' and 'XO Play' – were unveiled on the 40-year milestone of World Peace Day, September 21, 2021, at the World Trade Center campus in New York City

For more information: www.xoworldproject.com

Connected Worlds, New York Hall of Science

at 47-01 111th St., Corona, NY, 11368

Presented in the iconic Great Hall, Connected Worlds immerses museum visitors in a fantastically animated world. In this exhibit about sustainability, your actions – gestures, movements and decisions – impact how well the world is kept in balance.

For more information: www.nysci.org/nysci-exhibits

