

The Columbia Climate School
DEIAAAJ Office Presents...

Examining the History and Re-
Emergence of Midwifery in Response to Social and Environmental Determinants of Health with

Nicole Deggins,
CNM, MSN, MPH

WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

Date: Fri, March 24 (12:00pm-1:30pm)
Event: Examining the History and Re-Emergence of Midwifery in Response to Social and Environmental Determinants of Health with Nicole Deggins
Location: Columbia Climate School (Hogan Hall A Conference Room, on-site with streaming capabilities)
click here for Zoom link

Nicole Deggins, CNM, MSN, MPH, is one of the country's leading birth advocacy experts named "The Midwife Shifting the Narrative" by ESSENCE Magazine. She is a sought-after trainer, public speaker and community educator working to eliminate perinatal disparities and bring transparency to prenatal education and the medical obstetrical system. As the founder and CEO of Sista Midwife Productions (SMP) she is dedicated to helping individuals and communities create a paradigm shift around the experience of giving birth. She is the creator of the largest online Black Midwife and Doula directory, and the signature Sista Midwife Birth Sister/Doula training. Nicole uses 30 years of experience working with pregnant women and families, to train and support birth workers, communities and organizations that work with childbearing families. Through webinars, keynotes, live workshops, and events, Nicole creates enlightening and engaging programs. Nicole teaches that Birth is The Revolution and through birth we can heal our communities.